

Meet the Leaders:

Judy Hughes
Eric Reynolds

Judy Hughes has lived in California for 50 years, with an 11-year break in Arizona. She previously lived in the Midwest, before moving to California. She received a degree in English from UCLA, and also has a teaching credential and school library credential from CSULB. Her Master's is in Library Science from San Jose State. She is a retired school librarian. Her favorite food is pizza and chocolate cake. Her favorite vacation spot is Europe. She was to lead CareShare because of her 7 years of experience in caregiving, and "I saw a need and the Holy Spirit prodded me to fill it."

Eric Reynolds has lived in California for 54 years, and previously lived in Alliance, Ohio. He received a B.S. in Criminal Justice from CSULB. He is currently a police officer, teacher, missionary, and non-career investigator. His favorite band is Nitty Gritty Dirt Band. His favorite food is pasta. His favorite vacation spot is Colorado. Eric was previously a leader for CancerCare, a support group for those with cancer and those taking care of them. He has battled cancer, and enjoyed leading that ministry. He is currently supporting Judy, as a co-leader, in CareShare.
