

Meet the Leaders:

David Albright
Nick Ewens

Nick Ewens has lived in California his entire life. He grew up near a small town in rural Northern California, near Mount Shasta. He received his B.A. in Political Science from CSULB. He is currently in law enforcement. His favorite food is any cuisine – he loves them all. His favorite vacation spot is anywhere with beautiful scenery, good history, or with loving family and friends. He was led to lead DivorceCare because “I came to DivorceCare as a participant and I can honestly say that it was a pivotal transformation in my recovery as a divorcee and the intense deepening of my relationship with God. I hope that my service can help others find a similar result.”

David (Dave) Albright has lived in California his entire life. He received a 2-year degree. He has worked as a real estate investor, primarily in home repair services. His favorite band is The Eagles. His favorite food is anything healthy. His favorite vacation spot is Brazil, but also Hawaii. He was led to lead DivorceCare from healing from the hurt of his divorce, and because a Pastor at Arbor Road interviewed him, and asked him to lead. From a step of faith, he decided to lead, and has led for years since.
